For
COUNTY RECORDER
WHITESIDE COUNTY, IL

Dawn M. Young, Whiteside County Recorder, announces her bid for re-election in 2012. Young began working in the Whiteside County Recorder's Office in 1981. In 1996 she was elected to the office of Recorder, continuously serving residents of Whiteside County for over 30 years.

Since serving as Whiteside County Recorder, her office has been professionally managed with a philosophy of providing the most efficient and effective service possible to the public. She and her staff have taken care to welcome visitors to the office, assisting them in locating any documents sought by residents, businesses, and legal representatives. Young, a member of the U of I Certified County Officials program, is disciplined in the process of reviewing documents to see that Illinois statutory requirements are met.

Young has brought the Whiteside County Recorder's Office into the 21st century by implementing the Property Fraud Alert Program and Laredo Tapestry on-line access.

The Property Fraud Alert Program is a free service that sends an alert by e-mail or telephone any time a document is recorded under their name. Laredo Tapestry is a program that provides a subscription service to individuals or businesses that may want to save time and resources by searching documents on-line.

While providing a greater variety of services to Whiteside County residents, Young has been diligent in keeping the costs of running her office to a minimum, always operating under-budget. Young and her staff look forward to providing the same friendly, efficient services at a minimum cost to the taxpayers of Whiteside County.
